For Buddy's mom or dad to read:

I give my permission for my child to take a dance class at Footsteps. I understand that sometimes, even though they are trying to be safe and careful, kids get hurt when they are dancing. If that happens to my child, I promise not to hold Footsteps liable, and I understand that any medical costs resulting from such an injury will be solely my responsibility. Thanks for letting my child try a dance class at your studio!
